

ANCHOR 1: Wow! Areeba you are wearing such a nice dress from where did you get it ?

ANCHOR 2: Thank you Sana! my mother has bought it from a mall.

ANCHOR 1: How much does it cost?

ANCHOR 2: Oh! Sana .The actual price was 500 but I got 20% discount. Now can you guess how much I actually paid?

ANCHOR 1: Ok! Let me think...

ANCHOR 2: Come on Sana.Maths is actually an interesting foundational and universal subject. It’s important lies in fostering logical reasoning , critical thinking and problem solving skills essential for success in academics , career and everyday decision-making.

ANCHOR 1: No! I can’t I really can’t guess. I have less interest in maths.I am just not good at it.

ANCHOR 2: I am sure you will start loving it after watching this skit.
